All Are Welcome Sunday

Commit to prayer this week:

- You've been considering what it means to invite someone, and you've been considering the people in your life who might be open to an invitation.
- Commit yourself now to pray for those people, in particular, who God is encouraging you to invite.
- Write the name(s) of those people on the form below. Tear off the bottom section and offer it during worship this morning as a commitment to pray for them. Keep the rest of the form as a reminder to pray for them during the week.
